

Access to Documentation as a Pathway to Justice for Migrants

Agenda And Speaker List

September 4, 2024 10:00am-12:00pm EDT

9:30 - 10:00 Coffee and Networking (in-person only)

10:00 - 10:07 Welcome Remarks

- Ambassador Michael Gort, Deputy Permanent Representative of the Permanent Mission of Canada to the UN

10:07 - 10:14 Opening Remarks

- Ambassador Juan José Quintana, Deputy Permanent Representative of the Permanent Mission of Colombia to the UN

10:14 - 10:19 Framing Remarks: Access to Documentation as a Pathway to Justice

- Leah Zamore, Senior Fellow, Zolberg Institute for Migration and Mobility

10:19 - 10:34 Understanding the Challenges: Documentation and A2J for Migrants in the Global South

- Presentation by Professor Heaven Crawley, Director, MIDEQ Hub on research in South Africa, Brazil, Kenya and Nepal on injustices associated with a lack of documentation for migrants

10:34 - 11:30 Looking Towards Solutions: The Role of Local, National, and International Actors

- (Moderator) Fernando Marani, Program Director, Inequality and Exclusion, Pathfinders, NYU Center on International Cooperation

Panelists:

- Margaret Satterthwaite, United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Independence of Judges and Lawyers
- Jackie Keegan, Deputy Director, Division of International Protection – Resettlement and Complementary Pathways, UNHCR
- Paula Sanmiguel, First Secretary and Third Committee Expert, Permanent Mission of Colombia to the UN
- Erick Rozo, Founder, The CESI Foundation
- Aisha Khagai, Program Manager, Citizenship, Namati

11:30 - 11:55 Open discussion of participants and audience Q & A

11:55 - 12:00 Summary and Conclusion: Implications for Programming, Policy and Advocacy

- Fernando Marani, Program Director, Inequality and Exclusion, Pathfinders, NYU Center on International Cooperation

Background Materials

- Shrinking the Justice Gap: Rethinking Access to Justice for Migrants in the Global South
- Using Justice Chain Analysis to unlock access to justice for migrants in the Global South
- “No papers, no rights”: Access to documentation as a pathway to justice for migrants in the Global South
- Identification in the Context of Forced Displacement
- Enhancing Access to Legal Identity for Migrants: IOM’s Commitment to ‘Legal Identity for All’
- Compendium of Good Practices in Enabling Access to Legal Identity for Undocumented Migrants
- A Community-Based Practitioner’s Guide: Documenting Citizenship and Other Forms of Legal Identity
- Justice for All: Report of the Task Force on Justice
- Colombia’s Support for Venezuelan Migrants and Refugees